DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-3, 7, 15-20, 21, 23 and 24 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Prior art failed to establish the required heterodimensional diode structure.

2. Claim 10, 12-14 and 22 objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Prior art failed to establish the required periodic grating gate, the required transparent gate structure.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 8 and 11 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nerses et al. (6,178,275) in view of Mahonty (2003/0016716) further in view of Yamada (5,468,972) .

Regarding Claims 1-5, 7-9, 11, 13 and 14, Nerses et al. disclose a method and apparatus for modulation of guided plasmons where in Figs. 1 and 4 a 2-dimensional gas structure 60 disposed on the AlGaAs semiconductor structure. In Claims 1, 4 and 6, Nerses et al. disclose a laser pulsing means to pulse the 2-dimensional gas. Nerses et al. fail to disclose the duration of such laser and the required adjustment of the frequency using the voltage applied to the semiconducting structure. However, Mahonty disclose a sonolaser where in paragraph 70 a ten picoseconds duration laser is disclosed. Furthermore, Yamada discloses vacuum device for controlling spatial position and path electron where in paragraph 6 it is disclosed that an electron gas is accelerated to be moved with high speed in the air-tight chamber by an electric field generated across the source and drain electrodes, wherein the motion of the electron gas is controlled by an external signal applied to the gate electrode.

It would have been obvious to one of having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to include the required laser duration and the required adjustment of the frequency in Nerses et al. as taught by Nahonty and Yamada in order to have a two dimensional gas structure on a semiconducting structure with higher performance.

Conclusion

1. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Art Unit: 2826
